Accessibility Services

"The University is committed to developing an accessible learning environment that provides reasonable accommodations to enable students with disabilities to meet the essential academic requirements of the University's courses and programs."

Accessibility Services collaborates with faculty, staff, and students to provide individualized accommodations that meet the needs of registered students while ensuring the academic integrity of the University of Toronto.

What is Disability?

- Refers to functional impacts experienced as a barrier within the environment
- Specific focus on barriers to the academic experience

The University has the Duty to Accommodate students with disabilities
